

Induction Ceremony TRADITIONAL VERSION

Not all chapters find this script appropriate for the style of their membership, but it can serve as an example to consider if an Induction Ceremony is presented. Instructions are in brackets.

Chapter Advisor

[Rises and welcomes audience to ceremony. Introduces self, Chapter President, and all other prominent individuals present at ceremony. Individuals rise when introduced. After introduction, all are seated.]

President

[Rises.]

Ladies, gentlemen, and fellow students, we welcome you to this important occasion. Today we will formally induct a number of students who have met the necessary Tri-M criteria and have accepted invitations to become active members of the Tri-M Music Honor Society. We will also recognize the continuing members of our chapter and our graduating members as Alumni of Tri-M. At this time, I wish to introduce the student officers of our chapter. _____ is the Vice President, _____ is the Secretary, _____ is the Treasurer, and _____ is the Historian.

[Each officer stands as his or her name is called. After the introduction, each officer sits.]

I will now ask _____, our Chapter Treasurer, to present the candidates for student membership.

[Sits.]

Treasurer

[Rises.]

These music students have been carefully selected on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Scholarship represents scholastic achievement and open-mindedness toward knowledge and truth. Character emphasizes a devotion to high ideals and recognizes no barriers between people of diverse backgrounds. Leadership guides us to greater undertakings, and service encourages assistance and kindness to others.

[Sits.]

President

[Rises.]

We will now describe the meaning of the name Tri-M for the candidates for student membership.

[Pauses while Vice President and Secretary rise.]

The name Tri-M was derived from the original name of our honor society, Modern Music Masters. The Vice President and Secretary will speak of the first letter M, which signifies "modern."

Vice President

That which is new in any age is called modern. It is only in looking back that descriptions such as old, classical, or romantic are given to those art forms that had formerly been accepted as modern.

Secretary

Let us remember that we should study the past to effectively plan our future. This is a youth organization, and with each succeeding year, its membership will be made up of young people such as you. Therefore, our honor society will never grow old, but will be eternally modern.

[Vice President and Secretary take their seats.]

President

The second letter M signifies "music." The Treasurer and Historian will explain this second symbol.

[The Historian and Treasurer rise.]

Treasurer

According to The Random House Dictionary of the English Language, "Music is the art of sound that expresses ideas and emotions in significant forms through the elements of rhythm, melody, harmony, and color."

Historian

Music was present even before there was written language, and from that time to the present, it has been a source of communication. Music is the universal language.

[Treasurer and Historian take their seats.]

President

The third letter M signifies "masters." In the art field, the custom has been to give the title of "master" to those who have achieved a high degree of proficiency.

[Looks at candidates.]

You have met the criteria as a Tri-M candidate for student membership. As "masters," you now have increased your opportunities to serve your school and community. A member of the Tri-M Music Honor Society is one who sets a good example, is always willing to assist those students who are striving to better themselves in the music department, and always remembers that real honor brings responsibility. May you accept this honor of membership and the responsibility that is now vested in you, and wear your pin emblem with pride.

[Turns to Treasurer.]

Please explain the meaning of the Tri-M membership emblem.

[Sits.]

Treasurer

[Rises and points to the Tri-M emblem, if available.]

The Tri-M emblem was designed to symbolize the function and purpose of the honor society. The music staff, the lyre, and the scroll represent the members' proficiency and service in the field of music. The triplet figure in the form of an M symbolizes the three Ms in the name Modern Music Masters, from which the society's name was derived.

[Sits.]

President

[Rises and looks at the candidates.]

Will all the candidates for student membership please rise and repeat the pledge to show your willingness to carry out the principles of the Tri-M Music Honor Society?
